Mrs. John G. Krieger, 526 City Park avenue, left Friday afternoon for the east to meet her husband, an officer on the battleship Delaware with the Atlantic fleet, which arrived in New York Saturday. Mrs. Krieger will probably remain away from Columbus all summer and will be in New York and Boston the greater part of the time. She received a radiogram from her husband Thursday stating that the Delaware was headed north from Panama.

Several years ago Mrs. Robert G. Paterson, seeing the necessity of a play school in the South Side, established one in the Washington park shelter house. There was no equipment to work with and as no fee was charged, it was rather a difficult undertaking. This, however, did not discourage Mrs. Paterson and out of this little play school a large one has grown.

A group of women organized the Work and Pleasure club and bought the equipment for the school. With the assistance of the South Side Civic association a play school of over 100 children has developed. Now the necessity of a play ground at Washington park is felt and the Work and Pleasure club hopes to have one established this summer.

The next regular meeting of the Work and Pleasure club will be at the home of Mrs. Paterson, 91 Deshler avenue, on Friday, May 7, at which time she will entertain the members at luncheon.

Edward Ruetty and Mr. John Kaiser as ushers. Relatives and friends of the couple will witness the ceremony. No formal invitations
