

EARLY STATE FAIRS.

To the Editor of The Dispatch.

Sir: In Saturday's paper Mr. Peters states that there had been a state fair out at Camp Chase. I lived west of there and do not recall a fair ever being held at that place. But I do remember very vividly that a fair was held in Stewart's Grove in '65. As a young miss, I recall this event for this was the first time I had ever been treated to pop or soda water by a young-man. I remember the 88th regiment band Mr. Peters mentioned for I knew several of the members very well and attended many dress parades.

Mrs. Laura Osgood.
